

Training Course	International Relations and Diplomacy in Sports
Course Language	English / Arabic
Course Duration	Total Number of hours : 6 hours Days: 2 days Time: 4:00 pm – 7:00 pm
Course Content	Course Key Topic Area Includes:  Theories of International Relations and diplomacy Sport and National Identity Sport and Nation Formation Sport and International Relation Sport Diplomacy/Public Diplomacy Sport and Conflict/ Conflict Resolution Sport and International development
Learning Outcomes	At the end of the program the trainees will be able to: - To understand the concepts and contexts defining sport and international relations and diplomacy . - Providing basic knowledge and tools for the analysis of central subject areas such as the role of the state and different agencies in sport diplomacy international relations and international development with applications to Qatari Context

Target Audience	Students in Social Sciences from CAS, College of Business, College of Law Administrators working in sport organizations (National Olympic Committee, Sport Federations, Supreme Committee) Professionals in the media Civil servants in Sport Sector
Course Material /Technology used/ Details Relevant to the course.	Key readings: The Pillars of Qatar’s International Sport Strategy https://www.e-ir.info/2013/11/29/the-pillars-of-qatars-international-sport-strategy/ World Cup 2022: Meet the Qataris making the most of soccer's showcase: https://edition.cnn.com/2018/06/03/middleeast/qatar-world-cup-innovation-goal/index.html
Instructor Details &amp; Brief Instructor Bio	Name: Dr Mahfoud Amara Title/Dept: Sport Science Program Mobile: 70559361 Email: mamara@qu.edu.qa Dr. Mahfoud Amara joined Qatar University in the fall of 2015. He is currently the Director of Sport Science Program at the College of Arts and Sciences. Assistant Professor in Sport Management and Policy. has a number of publications on sport, business, politics and society in the Arab region. In 2012 he published a book with Palgrave and Macmillan on “Sport Politics and Society in the Arab World” . He is co-editor with Alberto Testa of a new book on “Sport in Islam and in Muslim Communities” (Routledge, 2015).
Course Fees	QAR 700 15% discount on online registration and payment.