

Spanish Language– Level 1

Training Course	Spanish for Beginners This introductory Spanish course has been designed to provide students with basic functional tools and practical language knowledge that will enable them to communicate immediately and effectively in simple conversations. The main focus of this proficiency-oriented course is to develop a basic communication in Spanish.
Course Language	English & Spanish
Course Duration	Total Number of hours: 24 Time: 5:00 pm – 8:00 pm , Days : 2 days a week : Mon, Wed
Course Objectives	Course Objectives By the end of this course, students should be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Greet and respond to introductions, thanks and farewells• Express origin and nationality• Ask for and respond to simple personal information• Respond to simple classroom instructions• Understand and express dates and time• Recognise descriptions of self and others• Understand, state, and ask about the existence and the location of people, places, and things• Use basic vocabulary on a variety of topics, such as: school, family, food and drinks, the body, clothing, means of transport, colours, hobbies, weather, places, and animals.• Have a basic cultural and social understanding of the contemporary Spanish-speaking world.

Learning Outcomes	At the end of the program the trainees will be able : <ul style="list-style-type: none">To be familiar with the Spanish alphabet,To introduce self to others,To greet, farewell, and thank peopleTo recognize and respond to greetings, farewells, introductionsTo recognize and respond to simple classroom instructionsTo recognize and use numbersTo understand, state, and ask about the existence of people, places, and thingsTo tell time and date and figure out schedules (Calendar and Seasons)To ask simple questionsTo ask about and respond to personal information about yourselves and others (using Subject Pronouns)To talk about their origin, nationality and workTo talk about their familyTo talk about qualitiesTo express possessionTo recognize, express, and enquire about physical states (hot, cold, hunger, thirst, age)To describe people, places and animalsTo recognize descriptions of self and othersTo state, and ask about the location of people, places, and thingsTo differentiate between the verbs "Ser" and "Estar"To speak about activities and what people do (using -Ar –Er –Ir verbs in the present tense)
Target Audience	This course is for students who are beginners in the Spanish language

Instructor Details & Brief Instructor Bio	Name: Mr. Enrique Castro Enrique Castro, MA, LLB, Alberta-Canada Teaching Certificate Enrique graduated as a lawyer in Peru before moving to Canada to undertake a Master of Arts degree in Spanish at the University of Alberta in Edmonton. He also holds a Teaching Certificate in the Province of Alberta in Canada, and a New Zealand Teaching Credential. Enrique has over 25 years of experience teaching the Spanish language. He has taught at the University and at the high school levels, including the Faculty of Arts and the Faculty of Extension at the University of Alberta, the College of Languages and Translation at King Saud University and the American International School of Riyadh in Saudi Arabia, Wanganui College in New Zealand, and Grant MacEwan University College in Edmonton, Canada.
Course Fees	QAR 1700 15% discount for online payment