

Successful Strategy Execution with the Office of Strategy Management by Palladium

Training Course	This training will explore the role of leadership in the BSC process; how to evolve management meetings to focus on strategy execution; to build effective BSC reports that monitor and drive performance; to link planning and budgeting to strategy; to understand the role of management vs. leadership; and to unify management activities into an Office of Strategy Management.
Course Language	Bilingual . Instructions in Arabic and training material in English .
Course Duration	Days 2 Time 8:00 am – 5:00 pm
Course Content	Course Key Topic Area Includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>&gt; Understand the role of leadership in the BSC process</li><li>&gt; Change your management meeting to focus on strategy execution</li><li>&gt; Unify your management activities into an Office of Strategy Management</li><li>&gt; Build effective BSC reports and understand how they drive performance</li></ul>
Learning Outcomes	At the end of the program the trainees will be able to: Designed for practitioners and teams responsible for managing hands-on BSC initiatives, Executing Strategy Using the Balanced Scorecard will provide you and your team with lessons learned, techniques, and skills that you can immediately apply. Wherever you are in the strategy management process, this seminar will stimulate, educate, and accelerate hands-on learning and practitioner networking. Walk away with a step-by-step guide for getting started and getting results, along with a framework to measure performance.

Target Audience	WHO BENEFITS BSC practitioners and implementation teams across a variety of industries attend from multinational corporations, mid-size businesses, associations, not-for-profits, and government departments. As team involvement is critical to the success of any BSC initiative, we recommend all team members attend and we offer flexible team pricing to facilitate team attendance.
Course Material /Technology used/ Details Relevant to the course.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>&gt; Hands on training with expert instructors</li><li>&gt; Practical application through learning exercises</li><li>&gt; 10-to-1 instructor to delegate ratio</li><li>&gt; Group exercises and networking</li><li>&gt; MBA level training / education</li><li>&gt; A proven framework to implement immediately</li></ul>
Course Fees	QAR 6000 per participants  15% discount for online payment and registration .