The Pearl - Qatar, a Riviera style man-made island developed in an exclusive environment in Doha. It is the Middle East's most glamorous address, covering 400 hectares of reclaimed land and Qatar's first international urban development venture.

Katara Cultural Village is the largest and the most multi-dimensional cultural project of Qatar. It is a place where people come together to experience the cultures of the world. With beautiful theatres, concert halls, exhibition galleries and cutting-edge facilities, Katara aims to become a world leader for multi-cultural activities.

Drive by West Bay, a newly developed neighborhood and one of the most prominent districts of Doha. West Bay includes many modern buildings unlike other, older districts of Doha. Some of the tallest skyscrapers in Qatar are found in this area.

Al Corniche - a 7km long, palm-fringed promenade and dual carriageway extends in a horseshoe shape around Doha Bay and the city's sea-front. It is lined with hotels, government buildings; lovely open, manicured parks with family facilities and public buildings such as museums and a library. People love to stroll along the corniche, taking in the twinkling sights of the city and the Arabian Gulf.

Museum of the Islamic Art - an imposing building set on an artificial island off Doha's Corniche. The museum is dedicated to reflecting the full vitality, complexity and diversity of the arts of the Islamic world. It is a world-class collecting institution, which preserves, studies and exhibits masterpieces spanning 3 continents and 13 centuries. The building itself was designed by Architect I. M. Pei, designer of the Louvre in Paris.

Souq Waqif is one of the most popular attractions in Doha. It houses a huge range of shops and is famous for its dried herbs and spices and incense that looks like rocks. You will also find jewellery, tailoring, embroidery and traditional Arabic clothing shops. Old-style swords, daggers and other various goods are also on display.

North of Qatar Tour

4 1/2 hours

Al Zubara Fort/ Museum On the North-Western part of Qatar, is this little fort built on the ruins of an ancient fort, amidst the vast desert. It's an ancient fort turned into a museum now. This fort was originally built as a coast guard station. It was then rebuilt to what it looks like now through the aid of specialists with archeological and antiquity expertise

Al Khor (also spelled Al Khawr) means "sea on three sides" in Arabic. Older than Doha but far smaller in size. Al Khor is located an easy 50 kilometres from the capital city, to the north of Doha. This former pearl fishing centre is currently under renovation – beautifully manicured flower beds greet you as you drive in from the desert.

Al Ruwais - A village of Qatar, the nearest to the top of the promontory, about 2 1/2 miles south of Ras Rakan. It is inhabited by about 70 families of the Sadah tribe who own 18 pearl boats, 2 other sea-going vessels and 10 fishing boats; they also have 4 horses and 20 camels. There is a reef in front of the village within which the boats belonging to it anchor. The place is protected by a small fort with four towers, and drinking water is fetched from the Umm Dha'an well, 1 1/2 miles inland south of Ruwais

Dhow Ship Repair Yard – witness the skillful men Assemble and repair the magical wooden dhows.

Al Thakhira Mangroves is a habitat for the distinctive birds of the Middle East. It is the most unusual scenery you could find in Qatar.
