Dear Colleagues,

The Center for Excellence in Teaching and Learning will provide webinars from 10 to 14 January 2021. Workshops that display the badges icon 🎗 are part of the Badges initiative that focus on the Education Excellence Themes. Audience that attend these workshops will be asked to participate in an online activity. To know more about this initiative and how you can qualify for the badges, please click on the following link: Excellence Badges

Date	Time	Webinar	Facilitator	Session Discerption	Theme	Notes
Sunday, January 10, 2021	12.00 - 1.00 pm	Building Learning Modules in Blackboard (Arabic Language)	Ms. Jumana Samara (CETL)	This workshop will introduce Learning Modules in Blackboard. A learning module is a container for content that holds an organized collection of material presented with a table of contents. Faculty can decide whether students should view the content sequentially or whether they can view the content in any order that they choose. Any type of content, including text, audio, video, quizzes or even a Mashup may be included in a Learning Module	BADGES DE Digitally Enriched Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.
Monday, January 11, 2021	9.30 - 10.30 am	Experiential Learning: An Introduction (English language)	Dr. Husam AlDamen (CETL)	The purpose of the presentation is to introduce one of the five Education Excellence Themes: Experiential Learning. The workshop will give an overview of this learning approach and discuss the underlying theories that support it. Brief examples on the application of experiential learning will be provided. However, in-depth applications of experiential learning will be detailed in future workshops.	BADGES EX Experiential Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.

Monday, January 11, 2021	11:00 am - 12:30 pm	Qatar University Library (the new website of the library): The museums available in the Qatar University library (Arabic Language)	Mr. Abdalhakim Bshawi (Labrary)	A new library website was launched recently. In this session, the audience will learn how to search the library catalog over the Internet for books, magazines and various information containers. Moreover, how to search in electronic databases to obtain judged articles to support scientific research.	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.
Tuesday, January 12, 2021	10:00 am - 11:00 am	Active Learning in Distance Education (English Language)	Dr. Ismail Badran (CAS)	During the tough times imposed by the COVID-19 crises, enhancing students understand through active learning becomes a challenge. Students and educators who are used to traditional way of learning are struggling in adjusting to the new distance or hybrid education. Ensuring active learning is a major key for students' success, and it is possible to achieve it remotely. This workshop aims to discuss different strategies to ensure an active learning environment within the distance learning framework.	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.
Wednesday, January 13, 2021	11.00 am - 12.00 pm	Experiential Learning: An Introduction (Arabic language)	Dr. Husam Aldamen (CETL)	The purpose of the presentation is to introduce one of the five Education Excellence Themes: Experiential Learning. The workshop will give an overview of this learning approach and discuss the underlying theories that support it. Brief examples on the application of experiential learning will be provided. However, in-depth applications of experiential learning will be detailed in future workshops.	BADGES EX Experiential Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.

Wednesday, January 13, 2021	12.30 - 1.30 pm	Building Learning Modules in Blackboard (English Language)	Ms. Jumana Samara (CETL)	This workshop will introduce Learning Modules in Blackboard. A learning module is a container for content that holds an organized collection of material presented with a table of contents. Faculty can decide whether students should view the content sequentially or whether they can view the content in any order that they choose. Any type of content, including text, audio, video, quizzes or even a Mashup may be included in a Learning Module	BADGES DE Digitally Enriched Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.
Thursday, January 14, 2021	9.00 - 10.00 am	Introduction to Qatar University's Learner Centric Excellence Theme (English Language)	Dr. Chris Stryker (VPAA)	This presentation will provide a panoramic introduction to Qatar University's Learner Centric Excellence Theme. Participants will gain a clear understanding of what it means to develop and adopt learner-centric approaches to teaching and learning. Introductory examples of some easy-to-implement learner-centric practices will be given.	BADGES LC Learner-Centric Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.
Thursday, January 14, 2021	11.00 am - 12.00 pm	Learner Centered Learning - An Introduction (Arabic Language)	Dr. Siham Al Amoush (CETL)	This workshop aims to present learner-centered learning as one of the main goals of excellence in education for the Qatar University strategy 2018-2022, where the attendees will be introduced to the concept of learner-centered learning. Its theoretical foundations and its most important principles, in addition to the learning theories on which it is based. Some reflective questions will be raised that will be answered in following workshops.	BADGES LC Learner-Centric Education	To Enter the session kindly Click here to enter CETL Online Sessions Team.