

First conditional

1. Match the two halves of the sentences.

- a. If I finish my homework, a. the school will cancel the sports meeting.
- b. If it rains, b. I'll go out to the movies.

2. Read the rule and complete the table.

Rule: we use the first conditional to talk about things we think are possible in the future.

If clause	Result clause
If + present simple (will / 'll) + base form (will not / won't)

3. Complete the sentences with the correct form of the verb.

- a. If you _____ (help) me, I _____ (finish) my homework quicker.
- b. If he _____ (come) to school late, the school _____ (give) him a detention.
- c. The neighbors _____ (complain) if we _____ (make) a lot of noise.
- d. If I _____ (have) time, I _____ (get) concert tickets this afternoon.

4. Write your own "if" statements.

Example: If I finish my book tonight, I'll start another one tomorrow.

c.

5. In pairs, read the first part of your statements to your partner and ask her to finish it or ask a question (example: what will you do if it rains tomorrow?). Switch roles. Compare and discuss your answers.
